Marbella

A marvellous Andalusian city located at the heart of the Costa del Sol in southern Spain. Marbella's historic quarter offers visitors a taste of typical Andalusia, with its narrow, winding streets, squares garlanded with flowers and dazzling white-washed houses. Sea and mountain, tradition and modernity all come together in this Mediterranean city, offering the visitor a richly nuanced, multi-cultural, cosmopolitan atmosphere, open to progress and with a lifestyle based on co-existence and the welcoming character of its people.

Marbella offers its thousands of visitors endless possibilities. Amongst the numerous attractions are: 27,9 km of beaches, 14 golf courses, 4 marinas, including the world renowned Puerto Banús, conference centres, sports facilities, luxury hotels, restaurants of all types, luxury health centres and spas, modern shopping centres and the incomparable beauty of its natural surroundings.

In San Pedro Alcántara, the other town which makes up the Marbella district, some of the most significant Roman remains on the Costa del Sol can be seen: the paleo-Christian basilica of Vega del Mar, the Bóvedas Roman baths, and near to Puerto Banús, the Roman villa of Río Verde.

Marbella Facts

Surface area: 116,8 km²
With 27.9 km of coast line, and occupying a strip of land measuring a width of 3.5 and 5.5 km which reaches inland to the foothills of the Sierra Blanca mountain.

Location:
- Latitude: 36º 30' N
- Longitude: -4º 53' W
- Average altitude: 24 meters above sea level

Population: 141.163 inhabitants (30% approx. are foreigners)
- The two main centres of the Marbella municipality are Marbella and San Pedro Alcántara. The rest of the population is dispersed amongst various urbanisations, with Nueva Andalucía and Las Chapas as the main residential areas.

Neighbouring towns: Estepona, Benahavís, Istán, Ojén and Mijas.

Distance from Málaga, regional capital: 57 km

Communications:
- By road: Mediterráneo A-7 bypass (E-15) and the Costa del Sol AP-7 (toll) motorway.
- By air: The nearest airport is Málaga – Costa del Del Sol, 48 km away, which can be reached by direct bus from Marbella. Gibraltar airport is approximately 75 km away.
- By train: The nearest station is Fuengirola, 27 km away. The long distance train can be taken from María Zambrano station in Malaga, 57 km away.

Climate: Marbella enjoys a warm climate with an average annual temperature of 19º C (66 º F).
The combination of local climatic conditions means that Marbella enjoys a micro-climate, even within the warm climate of the Costa del Sol. These are: the latitude, being located on the side of the Sierra Blanca mountain, the effect of the Gibraltar Strait and the thermoregulatory presence of the sea.

Festivities and traditions:
- San Bernabé Fair: a week around the 11th of June, patron saint's day.
- San Bernabé Procession: Sunday before the Fair.
- San Pedro Alcántara Fair: a week around the 19th of October, patron saint's day
- Local bank holidays: 11th of June and 19th of October.
- Virgen del Carmen festivities: Seafaring festivity and sea-land procession of the Virgin, 16th of July.
- Carnivals: February
- Easter Week: March or April
- Etc.

Gastronomy:
Marbella is held up as a benchmark in the field of catering due to its high concentration of restaurants which exceed 800, and include almost the entire range of regional and international cuisine.

The traditional cuisine of Marbella consists of simple and ingenious dishes with great flavours, amongst which of note are: "mixed fried fish", sardines on the spit, stewing noodles, tomato soup, "emblanco" (fish soup), gazpacho, cuttlefish in sauce, sautéed cockles and clams, garlic soup, roasted pepper salad...

In the confectionery department, "tortas de aceite" (oil cakes), "roscos de vino" (wine bagels), "borrachuelos" (sweet cakes), "torrijas" (fried bread with honey…), "churros"...

Conferences, meetings and events venues

The town of Marbella presents optimal infrastructures for the organisation of events of any category. Amongst them is the Palacio de Congresos Adolfo Suárez (Adolfo Suárez Conference Hall), which provides large venues for all types of events.

These infrastructures also extend to the hotel establishments with the availability of facilities of different capacities, multimedia resources and many commodities which make the town of Marbella a location specialising in conference tourism.

The Palacio de Congresos Adolfo Suárez (Adolfo Suárez Conference Hall) is specifically designed to hold conferences, product launches, exhibitions, conferences and meetings, both national and international. We offer high quality facilities and organisation for your events.

The centre occupies more than 10.000 m², bringing together an auditorium, meeting rooms, catering areas and an exhibition pavilion, all under one roof.

It has the double advantage of offering two large areas, one for exhibitions and another for conferences, in the same building and of being located close to the centre of town.

Leisure

AVENTURA AMAZONIA MARBELLA

The largest adventure park in Andalusia and the only one located directly on the coast. Just 500 m from the beach, the park has 83 high-rope walks and 20 zip-wires distributed over the six adventure routes: MiniKids, Kids, Explorador, Jungla, Aventura y Deportivo; and three learner routes. You can launch yourself though the trees on Andalusia's longest zip-wire measuring an amazing 240 m!
The park has a cafe on site, and there is a shopping centre and restaurants just 100 m away.

Address: A-7, km 192 - Elviria

CABLE SKI

The Marbella cable-ski and wake-boarding course is 820 ms. long, meaning that nine people can ski at once. The cable-ski system allows you to learn and practice water skiing quickly, easily and cheaply. After the extensive renovations and improvements carried out in 2013 this is now one of the best installations in Europe. Every year the equipment is improved and extra services added. There is also a restaurant and swimming pool on site.

DAY TRIPS FROM MARBELLA

BENAHAVÍS: A beautiful mountain village 20 km from Marbella, well known for its restaurants. The village is documented as having existed since the Moorish occupation of Spain.

CASARES: One hour drive from Marbella. The small, picturesque houses grouped on the steep, winding streets gives Casares its name of "the hanging village". As well as the enchanting, Moorish outline of its streets the village also has a well preserved Arabic castle.

ESTEPONA: Another popular tourist centre on the Costa del Sol, Estepona is ideally situated between mountains and sea, at 26 km from Marbella. The historic quarter preserves the typical architecture of an Andalusian village. There is also a fishing port and marina.

ISTÁN: A typical Andalusian village, 16 km from Marbella, Istán is synonymous with its fresh water and springs, which flow from the numerous fountains in the village. Of special note is the reservoir de la Concepción which supplies water to the Costa del Sol. The oldest and most noteable monument is the 16th century parish church. Other buildings of interest are the caves which house the Casa de la Juventud (youth club), the public baths and the Arabic tower.

MÁLAGA: 56 km from Marbella, the capital of the Costa del Sol is a beautiful, Mediterranean city with an excellent port. The historic centre of the city, in the area formed by the Alcazaba and the Gibralfaro castle, is without doubt the most well conserved Arabic monument. The castle is poised on the highest hill in the city and connects with the Alcazaba by way of a walled walkway. Visit the cathedral, the Museum of Archaeology, the Picasso museum, Pablo Picasso's house, the Carmen Thyssen Museum, the Contemporary Art Centre (CAC), the Museum of Fine Arts, etc.

MIJAS: 45 km from Marbella, a 40 minutes drive brings you to this Andalucian "white village". Mijas has various interesting monuments to explore, such as the tiny, irregularly shaped bull ring. There are two Moorish churches in the village, and the fascinating Sanctuary of the Virgen de la Peña, the patron saint of the village. Visit the Miniatures Museum (Carromato de Max).

NERJA: 110 km from Marbella. A town that has managed to succesfully combine natural beauty and the tranquillity of an Andalusian village, with the modern services required in a tourist destination. The marvellous Nerja Caves are considered amongst the most beautiful in Europe.

OJÉN: A picturesque mountain village 9 km from Marbella. The cuboid, flat-roofed houses are a typical image of the Moorish origins of this village. The stunning Sierra Blanca mountain towers over Ojén.

RONDA: 56 km from Marbella. One hour of mountain road to reach this historic town, seated more than seven hundred meters above sea level, on an impressive cliff that divides the town in two. A visit to the bull ring, which dates from the reign of King Felipe the 2nd and has an impressive history, is a must.

GRANADA: 179 km from Marbella, at the foot of the Sierra Nevada mountain, Granada is a marvellous city with one of the most important cultural heritages in Spain. As well as the world renowned Alhambra palace and the Albaicín quarter, both designated as UNESCO heritage sites, Granada has a Renaissance cathedral which dates from the 16th century. There are many other monuments scattered through the corners of the city.

SEVILLE: Many different cultures have contributed to the history of Seville. This legacy has, down the years, shaped the cultural, architectural and artistic heritage that we can today admire in its streets, museums, festivals and gastronomy. There are many interesting places to visit, particularly: the Alcázar, the Indias Archive, the cathedral and Giralda bell tower, the Plaza de América, the Plaza de España, the bullring... This outstanding city is 256 km from Marbella.

CORDOBA: This city, 212 km from Marbella, has a great cultural and architectural heritage. Its strategic position, near to the Guadalquivir river, and the legacy of the different villages established on its rich soil, made this an exceptional place. Cordoba has three UNESCO Heritage Site titles: the Mezquita Cathedral, the Historic Quarter that surrounds it and the Fiesta de los Patios (Festival of the Patios – a competition for the prettiest flower covered patio).

GIBRALTAR: 78 km from Marbella this picturesque town's main language is English. However, the local language is llanito, a mixture of Andalusian Spanish and English. One of the main attractions is a trip on the cable-car, to visit the famous Gibraltar apes and the San Miguel cave.

TANGIERS: In under three hours you can travel from Marbella to an entirely different continent. Tangiers is in the heart of north Africa. Visit the town ramparts, the Roman Punic necropolis, the medina, mosques, souks, minarets and museums.
