Traditional hot spring town, Kinosaki Onsen

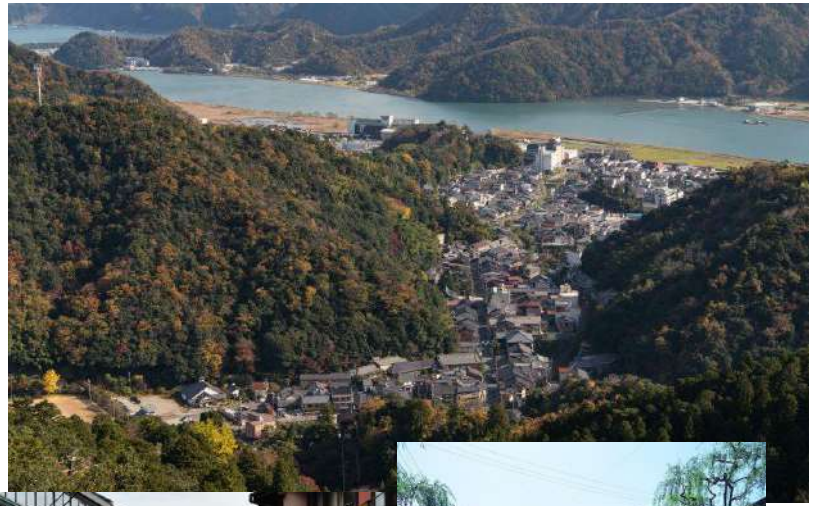

"In northern Hyōgo Prefecture, Kinosaki is one of Japan's best places to sample the classic onsen experience. A willow-lined canal runs through the town centre, and many of the houses, shops and restaurants retain their traditional charm. Add to this the delights of crab fresh from the Sea of Japan in winter, and you'll understand why this is one of our favourite overnight trips from the cities of Kansai."

Lonely Planet JAPAN

Kinosaki Onsen – Sales Points

- Easily accessed from major destinations such as Kyoto, Osaka, Kobe, Hiroshima, Naoshima & Tokyo.
- Totally walkable town – from JR Kinosaki Onsen Station to end of town, 30 min by foot.
- 1300 year history as best place to experience traditional Japanese hot springs & small town charm.
- Nearby many spots such as Genbudo cave park, Izushi Castle & Eirakukan kabuki theatre, Oriental white stork park, Takeno Beach, Ammanohashidate, Ine (boat house town)

Unique Experience

In a custom known as sotoyu meguri, visitors to Kinosaki Onsen wear traditional yukata robes, don wooden geta sandals and stroll the town while visiting its six public hot springs (see: Japan Guide article)
