2° The corporate name and geographical address of the organiser and the retailer, as well as their telephone numbers and, where applicable, email addresses;

4° The payment terms, including the amount or percentage of the price to be paid as a deposit and the schedule for payment of the balance, or the financial guarantees to be paid or provided by the traveller;
5° The minimum number of persons required for the trip or stay to take place and the deadline mentioned in section III of Article L. 211-14 preceding the start of the trip or stay for possible termination of the contract in the event that this number is not reached;
6° General information concerning applicable conditions in terms of passports and visas, including the approximate time required to obtain visas, as well as information on health formalities in the destination country;

The form used to bring the information listed in this article to the traveller's attention is determined by joint order of the Minister responsible for tourism and the Minister responsible for the economy and finance. This order specifies the minimum information to be brought to the attention of the traveller when the contract is concluded by telephone.

Article R211-5

The information sent to the traveller as mentioned in paragraphs 1°, 3°, 4°, 5° and 7° of Article R. 211-4 are part of the contract and may not be modified other than as defined in Article L. 211-9.

8° Information on the traveller's right to cede the contract to another traveller, in accordance with Article L. 211-11.
With regard to the packages defined in Article L. 211-2 II A 2° e), the professional to whom the data is sent shall inform the organiser or retailer of the conclusion of the contract giving rise to the creation of a package. The professional shall provide the information required for the organiser to meet their obligations. As soon as the organiser or retailer is informed of the creation of a package, they shall provide the traveller with the information mentioned in paragraphs 1° to 8°, on a durable medium.

Article R211-7

The traveller may transfer their contract to a transferee who meets the same conditions as them for making the journey or stay, provided that the contract has not yet taken effect.
Unless otherwise stipulated in favour of the transferor, the latter is required to inform the organiser or retailer of their decision, no later than seven days before the start of the trip, by any means that provides proof of receipt. This transfer shall, under no circumstances, be subject to the prior consent of the organiser or the retailer.

Article R211-8

Where the contract includes an express possibility of price revision, within the limits provided for in Article L. 211-12, it shall specify the precise methods of calculation of both upward and downward price variations, in particular the amount of transport costs and related taxes, the currency or currencies potentially affecting the price of the trip or stay, the part of the price to which the variation applies, and the exchange rate of the currency or currencies used as a reference when establishing the price indicated in the contract.
In the event of a price reduction, the organiser or retailer has the right to deduct their actual administrative costs from the refund payable to the traveller. At the traveller's request, the organiser or retailer must provide proof of such administrative costs.

Article R211-9

In the event that, prior to the traveller's departure, the organiser or retailer is forced to modify one of the key elements of the contract, that they cannot meet the specific requirements mentioned in paragraph 1° of Article R. 211-6, or that the price increases by more than 8%, they shall inform the traveller as quickly as possible, in a clear, comprehensible and conspicuous manner, on a durable medium: 1° Of the suggested modifications and, where appropriate, their impact on the price of the trip or stay;

3° Of the consequences of the traveller's failure to reply within the set deadline;
4° Where applicable, of the service proposed and its price.
If the contract modification or replacement service results in a lower-quality or lower-cost trip or stay, the traveller has the right to an appropriate price reduction.
If the contract is terminated and the traveller does not accept another service, the organiser or retailer shall reimburse all payments made by or on behalf of the traveller as soon as possible and in any event no later than fourteen days after the termination of the contract, without prejudice to any compensation under Article L. 211-17.

Article R211-10

The organiser or retailer shall proceed with the reimbursements provided for in sections II and III of Article L. 211-14 or, under section I of Article L. 211-14, shall reimburse all payments made by or on behalf of the traveller, after deduction of the appropriate cancellation fees. Such reimbursements to the traveller shall be made as quickly as possible and in any event no later than fourteen days after the termination of the contract.
In the case provided for in section III of Article L. 211-14, the additional compensation that the traveller may receive shall be at least equivalent to the charge they would have incurred if they had cancelled on that date.

Article R211-11

The assistance to be provided by the organiser or retailer under Article L. 211-17-1 consists essentially of: 1° Providing useful information on healthcare services, local authorities and consular assistance;
2° Helping the traveller with long-distance communications and to find other travel services.
The organiser or retailer has the right to invoice this assistance at reasonable cost, if the difficulty is caused by the traveller deliberately or through negligence. The invoiced cost shall in no circumstances exceed the actual costs borne by the organiser or the retailer.

The Tourism Division of Vendée Expansion - SEM, in particular its marketing department, is in charge of the design, booking and sale of all types of leisure and hospitality services. It makes things easier for the public by offering them a wide choice of leisure and hospitality services in the Vendée department and ensuring fast, secure bookings.
The purchase from Vendée Expansion - SEM of trips and stays featuring on the website implies the client's full agreement to the terms of sale of Vendée Expansion - SEM and the unreserved acceptance of the provisions there within. These terms and conditions of sale apply to all trips and stays purchased from Vendée Expansion - SEM.

1b - Information

This website does not constitute a preliminary offer as set out in the general terms and conditions (Art. R. 211-4 of the French Tourism Code) and is non-binding for Vendée Expansion - SEM. The special conditions of sale of Vendée Expansion - SEM do not replace the regulations in force relating to the sale of stays and trips.

2 - Prices and terms

Prices are indicated net including VAT, in euros, and are valid for the year 2025. The price of the trip or stay must be indicated by the booking operator at the time of registration. No dispute regarding the price of the trip will be considered upon return. It is therefore up to the client to judge before departure whether the price is suitable.
Prices do not include transport, cancellation insurance, handling fees of €20 for stays and €2 for ticketing, tourist tax (to be paid by each participant on arrival), single occupancy supplement, optional services, personal expenditure, and any other items not mentioned in the programmes. Prices for trips and stays are determined on the basis of economic conditions in force on the date they are set. They may be revised in the event of exchange rate variations.

3 - Quotes

Each quote is personalised. Vendée Expansion - SEM undertakes to reply to you within 3 weeks from receipt of your request. The quote sent is in no way equivalent to an option, unless expressly stated on the quote. Quotes are subject to availability at the time of final booking. The client may not raise any objection or claim any compensation if Vendée Expansion - SEM is ultimately unable to establish a booking contract (due to unavailability, etc.). Upon receipt of your signed acceptance of the quote, a booking contract is drawn up with a request for a 25% deposit, and the options are submitted to the service providers.

4 - Booking and payment

The booking becomes firm when a deposit of 25% of the cost has been sent back to the marketing department of Vendée Expansion - SEM, along with the handling fee, cancellation insurance (optional) and a copy of the contract signed by the client. Payment of the balance is required in order to receive the booking details and exchange vouchers. Payment must be made at the latest 30 days before the stay along with the final list of participants. Any client who has not paid the balance by the agreed date will be deemed to have cancelled their trip or stay. The service will then be made available to other clients and no reimbursement will be made.
In the event of late registration within 30 days of the start of the stay, full payment will be required on booking. Furthermore, the organiser reserves the right to not proceed with a booking made within 8 days of the start of the stay.

5 - Exchange vouchers

The client must present to the service providers the exchange vouchers corresponding to the booked services. These exchange vouchers can take the form of paper document(s) or email(s). This certificate must be approved by the service provider and sent as quickly as possible to Vendée Expansion - SEM. A certificate that has not been approved by the service provider will result in SAEML Vendée Expansion verifying its validity and obtaining the service provider's final approval within 8 days. Any additional services requested by the client and not indicated in the exchange vouchers must be paid on site directly to the service provider.

6 - Arrival

The client must arrive on the day and at the time specified on the exchange voucher(s). Any services not consumed as a result of such delays shall remain due and shall not be reimbursed.

7 - Modification

In the event of modification by the client, this must be submitted to Vendée Expansion - SEM who reserves the right to either refuse the change or to accept it and invoice the resulting cost (€15). Depending on the modification requested by the client, additional cancellation fees may apply on the basis of the provisions of Article 8. Any postponement of the date shall be deemed as a cancellation and result in fees based on the provisions of Article 8. In the event of modification by the seller, the general terms and conditions of sale shall apply, as well as the provisions of the French Tourism Code, in particular those set out in Article R. 211-9.

8 - Cancellation

The client is responsible for any damage caused by themselves. They are invited to check whether their personal insurance policy covers holiday accommodation. If it does not, they are strongly advised to take one out.

An extra charge and/or security deposit may be requested by the service provider.

12 - Inventory and deposits

On taking possession of the rental accommodation, a deposit will be requested in the amount specified in the contract.
