Description

Gran Hotel Miramar is the first Grand Luxury (GL) hotel built in the old Andalusian city of Malaga, part of the Hoteles Santos.

Member of The Leading Hotels of the World, as well as of the prestigious Virtuoso network, Gran Hotel Miramar is a referent of the Grand Luxury in the city of Malaga.

A historic building that has been carefully restored after a two-year renovation, positioning Malaga as a luxury destination.

The iconic building was designed by the celebrated Spanish architect Fernando Guerrero Strachan and inaugurated in 1926 by King Alfonso XIII as the Prince of Asturias Hotel. In its nearly 100 years, this emblematic building has gone through many different uses since its inauguration, including a period as a field hospital during the Spanish Civil War and a 20-year stint as the city's courthouse.

During its restoration, efforts were made to preserve many of its original features, including intricate Moorish carved wooden arches, a beautiful gallery surrounding the hotel's lobby bar, known as Royal Courtyard, as well as Andalusian tiles, hand-painted frescoes and ornate stucco ceilings.

Description

The hotel has 200 rooms, including 29 suites, with views of the sea, the city, the historic gardens or Royal Courtyard.

It has 10 meeting rooms where any type of event or social gathering can be held, with a maximum capacity of 600 people.

In addition, Gran Hotel Miramar has six gastronomic spaces among its bars and restaurants, including a chill out terrace on the seventh floor overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. An intimate boutique spa and an outdoor swimming pool, all designed for the relaxation and enjoyment of its guests.

Internationally known as the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, Malaga is one of the oldest cities in the world, and the gateway to Spain's beautiful Costa del Sol.

Known for its acclaimed cultural center, Malaga has a wide range of museums and exhibition halls, the most significant of which is the Pompidou Center, housed in a futuristic building on Pier One and displaying a selection of 20th and 21st century paintings by artists such as Frida Kahlo and Marc Chagall.

In addition, the city's cultural offerings include the Picasso Museum, the Picasso Birthplace Museum, as well as the Carmen Thyssen Malaga Museum. For theater lovers, the Teatro Cervantes and Teatro del Soho Caixabank offer a varied program throughout the year.
