

ASPEN
SNOWMASS

WINTER 2022 - 2023

FOUR MOUNTAINS. ONE LIFT TICKET.

Aspen Snowmass is a destination like no other at the crossroads of nature, culture, and recreation. Four mountains and two vibrant towns engage the mind, body, and spirit—inviting you to live boldly, artfully, and optimistically. Aspen Snowmass leaves a lasting impact long after you return home.

A small town with a big heart, Aspen was once a booming mining community, exporting one-sixteenth of the world's silver. Over the last century, it has grown into one of the world's most well-known cultural centers. People of all nations, ages, and abilities come to revel in a community that is both laid-back and luxurious, athletic and artful. Aspen is a modern city known for its diverse art, dining, and shopping scene, with hints of mountain nostalgia down every street and at every trailhead. The streets end where the slopes of the "town mountain" begin. The legendary terrain goes above and beyond, welcoming anyone with a taste for adventure and challenging even the most experienced skier, if they're up for it. After a day on the slopes, all trails end at Ajax Tavern, where après ski parties may lead to an elegant restaurant, vibrant nightclub, or a cozy seat in front of a roaring fire.

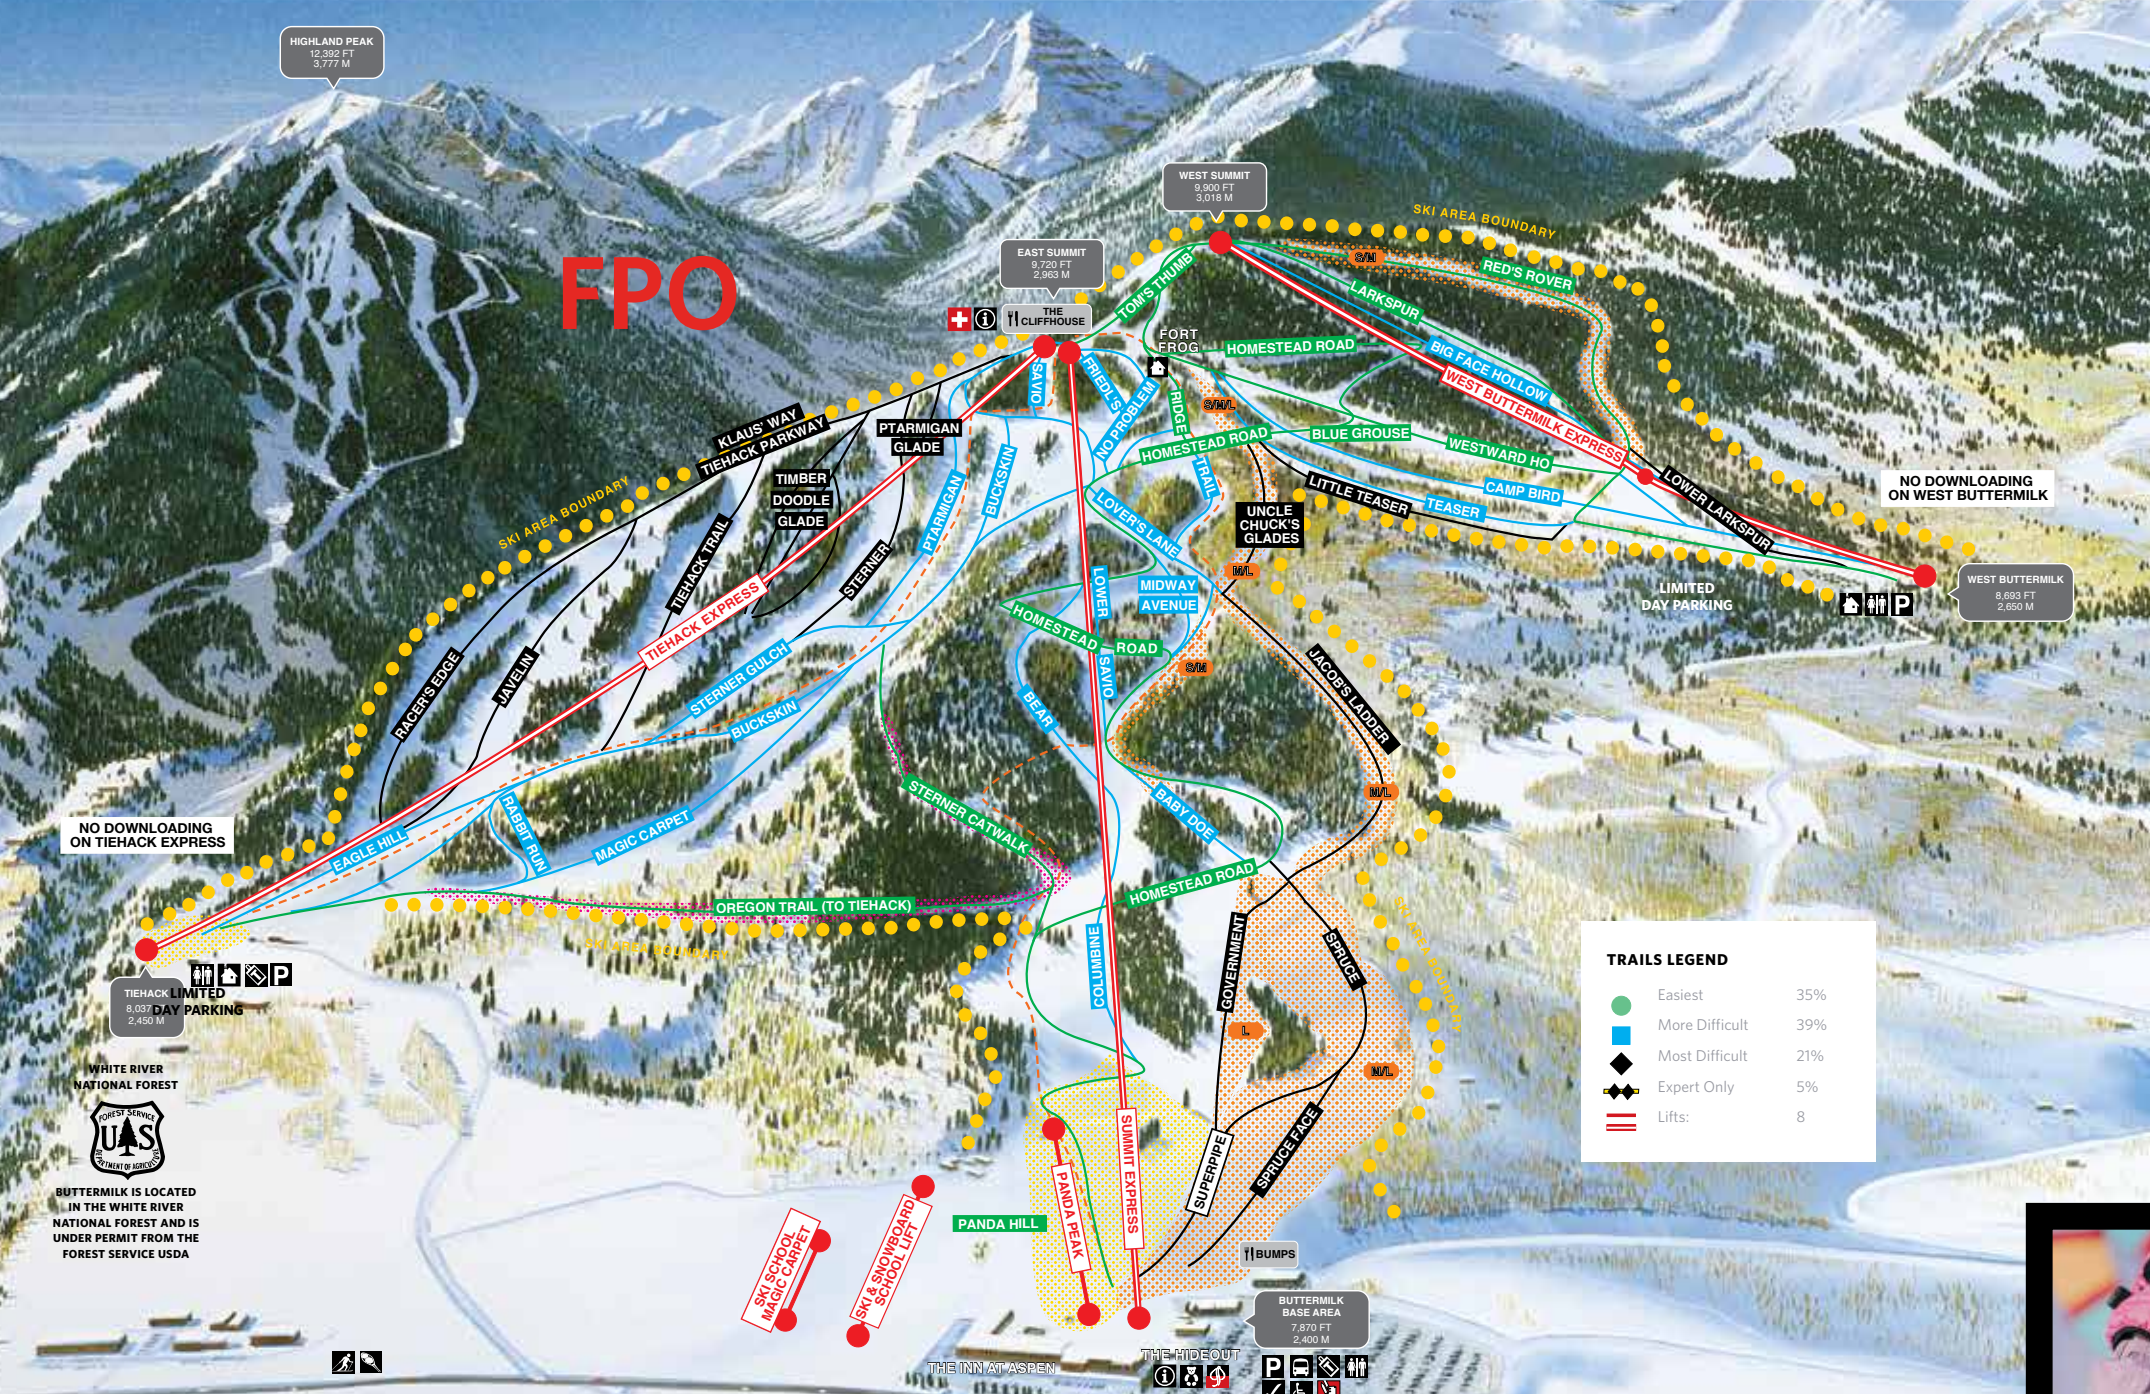

ASPEN HIGHLANDS

Developed as an independent ski area in the 1950s, Aspen Highlands joined the Aspen Snowmass family in 1993 as the resort's fourth official mountain. Both its history and renegade personality are proof this mountain was born different. Whether you're racing down its fast frontside or skiing the technical tree runs off Deep Temerity—these slopes embrace freedom, individuality, and anyone with a pure love of the sport. Aspen Highlands is the home of two local rites of passage, both celebrating its maverick spirit. The first is Highland Bowl, a steep, 270-acre swath of wide-open skiing bliss with turns that must be earned by hiking along a ridgeline rising to 12,392 feet (3,777 meters). The second is Cloud Nine Alpine Bistro, an energized après experience featuring fondue, raclette, and a lot of champagne. Both are legendary, and both yield stories for years to come.

Buttermilk is an easy-going mountain where every day is all-day recess. Designed to help children and beginners fall in love with winter sports on flowing, forgiving runs, that same friendly terrain is the perfect landscape for professional athletes to win global titles at world-class events like X Games Aspen. Little ones learn at The Hideout—one of North America's most renowned centers for ski and snowboard education—uphillers charge to the summit for a cardio workout, and skiers glide through the powder stashes hanging around days after a storm. New this year, Buttermilk's transformed base area will include a 9,000+ square-foot fully electric skier services building, creating a sustainable and intuitive one-stop shop for guests to purchase tickets, dial in gear rentals, shop, and relax in the lounge. And with a new bar area and renovated, heated outdoor seating, the base restaurant lodge is taking the comfortable and fun hangout to the next level.

BUTTERMILK

SNOWMASS+ SNOWMASS VILLAGE

Since its inception in 1967, Snowmass has grown from five to 21 total lifts, all transporting guests to a unique winter experience with unlimited potential. With 95% of its lodging ski-in/ski-out, Snowmass is the perfect mountain for families and groups. Its wide-open layout creates space for visitors to form personal connections with everything from high alpine expert terrain to flowing beginner trails. The Treehouse Kids' Adventure Center mixes indoor and on-snow play for youngsters, and entire families can enjoy the activities mid-mountain at Elk Camp—including tubing and the Breathtaker Alpine Coaster. Snowmass Village is a cozy resort town experience—accessible by snow, road, and gondola—delivering dining, shopping, and entertainment to all ages.

Aspen Snowmass for All Ages

The Whole Family Loves...

Elk Camp. During the day, the Elk Camp area is bustling with things to do. Ski and snowboard lessons at the Meadows learning area give guests the opportunity to experience gliding on snow at mid-mountain. Off skis, there's the Breathtaker Alpine Coaster and tubing lanes, plus a lively scene on the outdoor patio. In the evening, Ullr Nights—our weekly party with delicious food, a bonfire and s'mores, live music and (of course) tubing and coaster riding under the stars—is the epicenter of family fun.

Toddlers Love...

The Treehouse Kids' Adventure Center. This facility at Snowmass—complete with Colorado-themed play rooms—offers childcare services with lively, interactive play areas perfect for hands-on exploration.

Ages 3 to 6 Love...

Unique Ski & Snowboard School programs. Based out of the Treehouse Kids' Adventure Center at Snowmass and The Hideout at Buttermilk, our kids' Ski & Snowboard School programs offer the perfect balance of play and on-snow instruction, helping your little one fall in love with winter.

Ages 7 to 12 Love...

Kid-oriented trails and terrain. At Snowmass and Buttermilk, several areas are customized for kids to explore, with small paths leading to big magic. For a whole new way to slide down the slopes and mix up your trip, stop by the alpine coaster and tubing hill located at Elk Camp on Snowmass.

Teens Love...

Exploring new terrain! All four of our mountains are within 15 minutes of each other, which means your teen can set a goal to ski all four during their visit. You can also ditch the skis and boards for a day to try snowbiking, head over to the Limelight Snowmass for the five-story indoor climbing wall, or lace up your skates and take a spin around the ice-skating rink right next door.

Winter Key Events

Aspen Snowmass' calendar is packed with races, concerts, competitions, parties, and other lively happenings all season long. From big-name performers at spring shows via the Bud Light Hi-Fi Concert Series to round-table discussions with world-renowned thought leaders during the Aspen U series—there's always something to look forward to.

The 2022-2023 season will mark the 46th year of Aspen Gay Ski Week (the largest in the country) as well as the 22nd annual X Games Aspen, both taking place in January. And, Aspen Mountain is excited to be back on the international skiing stage as part of the 2022-2023 Audi FIS Ski World Cup calendar by hosting men's super-G and downhill alpine racing on the historic America's Downhill run March 3 through 5.

Visitors can enjoy experiences like nighttime art displays at Snowmass Luminescence, light-hearted competitions and activities during Spring Jam, and the locally-loved Friday Morning Uphill Breakfast Club at Buttermilk—where folks earn their turns and their meal—just to name a few.

Our Values in Action

At Aspen Snowmass, We're About More Than Just Skiing

What if the place you chose to recreate wasn't just a business that sold you lift tickets and gear rentals, but had a bigger mission? What if it used some of its revenue, and a lot of its labor, to have an impact on issues like climate change, clean energy, affordable housing, and tolerance? At Aspen Snowmass, we invite you to join us in bridging our common values with work and play. We are a place where taking care of our local and global community is a priority—and we've taken the action to prove it. Aspen Snowmass is a values-driven company—owned and operated by people who nurture and respect the coexistence of resort, community, and the environment. We aim to honor our past while striving for a brighter future—we are where place meets purpose. Join us and be reminded of yours.
