About L'Annexe

L'Annexe is a brewery that emanated from a long lasting friendship and a passion for all drinks fermented. We brew traditional beers with a modern twist and the best fermented lemonades anywhere.

Whether it is our beers or our lemonades, all are made with 100% natural ingredients and nothing else. We juice our own ginger for our ginger beer and squeeze the juice out of raspberries for our raspberry lemonade, all our beers are made from the best ingredients. This method doesn't only make for a nice story it delivers excellent flavor.

Range of products

We brew both beers and naturally fermented lemonades in our microbrewery in Brussels Belgium. In the future we will launch ourselves in other fermentation adventures such as fruit wines, Sake and Cider.
