About the Brand

JW Marriott Hotel Tokyo is the second property in Japan under the JW Marriott brand, one of the most prestigious within Marriott International's portfolio of over 30 brands.

Inspired by founder John Willard Marriott's belief that "caring for yourself allows you to better care for others," JW Marriott focuses on programs and services that nurture the balance of mind, body, and spirit. Our aim is to create a sanctuary where guests can cherish the moment, foster connections, and enjoy enriching experiences.

Today, JW Marriott operates over 120 hotels in more than 40 countries and regions, offering refined experiences for discerning travelers seeking to be present and fulfilled in every moment.

Location

Located on the 23rd to 30th floors of Takanawa Gateway City THE LINK Pillar 1 South, JW Marriott Hotel Tokyo enjoys a prime location directly connected to the new Takanawa Gateway Station. Guests benefit from exceptional access not only to central Tokyo's key districts but also to Haneda and Narita airports, as well as Shinagawa Station.

From guest rooms and public spaces, sweeping views extend toward the Imperial Palace area, Tokyo Bay, and even Mount Fuji offering serene and memorable moments where the sky meets the city.

The hotel features 200 guest rooms, including suites, seven restaurants and bars showcasing seasonal ingredients and regional specialties, nine banquet and meeting rooms designed for everything from grand celebrations to intimate gatherings, and a spa dedicated to restoring balance to body and mind—ensuring an exceptional and truly memorable stay.
