TECHNOLOGIES

TECH FLEX - POWER

Advanced foam application at the throat of the paddle optimizes weight distribution in the frame, enhances flexibility, and increases twist weight, expanding the sweet spot to deliver unrivaled control and precision.

PROPULSION CORE

Patent-pending propulsion core adds flexibility to the honeycomb structure, creating a catapult effect that allows for explosive power on drives, counters, and speed ups.

HONEYCOMB CORE

Lightweight polypropylene honeycomb structure that provides maximum durability and play consistency.

HYPER-FOAM EDGE WALL

Specialized foam injected into the perimeter of the paddle adds weight and stability, increasing the sweet spot for consistent edge-to-edge performance.

HYPERFOAM EDGE BASE

Foam layered into the bottom of the paddle increases flexibility and spin for improved precision.

SK FILM

Specialized layer of film is distributed between our honeycomb core and textured carbon fiber surface, increasing the power and sweet spot of the paddle.

NFC ENABLED

Advanced micro-chip embedded in the handle allows players to seamlessly authenticate and activate the extended warranty on their paddle.

SURFACE & MATERIALS

TEXTURED CARBON FIBER SURFACE

Stiff and durable carbon fiber surface evenly distributes vibrations on impact to deliver a refined touch and increase precision. The textured surface grips the ball on impact to increase spin.

ARAMID CARBON FIBER WOVEN SURFACE

Material blend provides a refined touch with the added benefit of a softer surface for more control.

CARBON SANDBLASTED SURFACE

Long-lasting carbon fiber surface seamlessly distributes vibrations for an improved feel and is put through a multi-step, sand-blasted process to create a textured surface for increased spin.

FIBERGLASS SANDBLASTED SURFACE

Composite material is more flexible than carbon fiber on contact, creating a greater rebound effect for powerful returns.

ABOUT:	The top half of the paddle is squared at the corners, allowing for additional reach and a higher sweet spot for extra power.		JOOLA's signature aero-curve shape allows the paddle to cut through the air faster due to its aerodynamic design.		Modeled after original wooden paddles, this shape offers a larger striking area, making it more forgiving and easier to maneuver for hand battles.		Preferred by players who utilize a one-handed backhand, the paddle has a shorter handle and a longer hitting surface to provide greater reach and power.		Inspired by the rackets that made Agassi a legend, the shape is uniquely tapered at the throat for balance and has a greater hitting zone at the upper half of the paddle.
