GUIDED TOUR SUGGESTIONS

Arabian Oryx (Oryx leucoryx)

The Arabian Oryx has settled in the plains of the Sultanate since the beginning of history due to the presence of pastures and wild breeding sites suited to its environment. Being iconic for the Sultanate, Oman applies vast protective measures in order to secure the survival of the species as the population number is estimated to count less than 1000 animals.

GUIDED EXCURSIONS

Dhow

Dhow is the generic name of a number of traditional sailing vessels with one or more masts with settee or sometimes lateen sails, used in the Red Sea and Indian Ocean region. Even to the present day, dhows make commercial journeys between the Persian Gulf and East Africa using sails as their only means of propulsion. Their cargo is mostly dates and fish to East Africa and mangrove timber to the lands in the Persian Gulf. They often sail south with the monsoon in winter or early spring, and back again to Arabia in late spring or early summer.

SELF DRIVE SERVICES

Qahwa

Qahwa (or kahwa) is the Arabic word for coffee and Arabic coffee is unique not only in its taste but how it is prepared and served. Qahwa in Oman is more than just coffee. It refers to what guests are served when they are invited to an Omani house. It includes the Omani coffee, a variety of Omani dates, fresh and dried fruits, Omani halwa along with other baked and fried goodies. The offering of qahwa is almost ritualistic and a direct representation of the warmth and welcoming nature of the Omani people.

Self Drive in Oman

Driving through safe and sound roads in Oman one can experience oriental heritage in its purest form. Small Villages of Bedouins, Carpet weavers, livestock raisers, palm leaf weavers, leather makers dwell into modern roads and developments as hidden treasures. Most of the Traffic signs along with Tourist attraction points are marked into English and Arabic in Oman. Friendliness of local people also helps one to find its way in case one enters into the deepest part of the cities or towns. Self-drive tours in Oman will make sure that you take back great memories to cherish along with bit of adventure during off road driving in the dessert, Wadis or Al Hajar Mountains.
