one event International

Alexis is a Chartered Accountant who has diversified his field of expertise by following his passion in the Corporate Tourism Industry. For over 10 years, he was leading the execution of Corporate Events, as a DMC Managing Partner. What customers say about Alexis, is that 'he always has that special 'out of the box' plan for any company, those ideas that make his events extra-ordinary and life memorable' – a result of his creativity, his immense research on destinations and 'secret' places, his extended experience on understanding the need and translating it into an action plan, away from the common & the standard!

Demetra is a Marketer and until recently she has been Heading the Marketing & Event Planning Department of a reputable Bank in its markets of operation! She has a track record of producing, presenting, and managing the implementation of innovative ideas and business solutions, with great expertise in event management. She has strong experience in identifying niches and creating opportunities for any Corporate need, through event planning and activities. Demetra's successful 20+ years career came to a closure, when she decided to join forces with her brother and together take Destination & Event Management to a different level!.
